An old law book with title, "Criminal Practice," "Criminal Procedure in Kentucky" or something of that kind. The book contains an account of the celebrated Wilkinson murder trial, with the speeches of Prentiss, R. van, Robertson, Ben Hardin and others. The book has long been out of print and was borrowed by a gentleman of this city to lend to another, and in some way got misplaced. Finder will please return to this office. This is important to the persons interested.
